Taking God's word to those who haven't heard.

Papua is just north of Australia.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This year and semester of school are off to a great start. I'm grateful for your prayers. This semester has probably been the busiest I've been with school to this point. I'm really enjoying my learning experience. I'm taking a full load of classes this semester which includes: Theory and Practice of Translation, Greek 2, and Greek Textual Analysis.

By God's grace, I will graduate on April 28. To graduate, I need to pass my comprehensive exams, which I will take on April 10. These tests cover the most important concepts I have learned while at Dallas International University. It's no joke, those of us taking 'comps' study all semester in preparation. It's almost like taking three classes over again because we're studying all of the time.

Please, pray for me as I study, prepare, and recall what God has allowed me to learn. I'm really grateful to review what I have learned. I still have a pretty full partnership development schedule during this time, but I'll be home at Sublett Road more during this season than I have since June of last year. Thankfully, this will allow me to finish the race well.

After graduation, I will take one more class this summer – Oral Bible Translation. It isn't required for my degree, but I would like to take it to be better prepared for the work that I will do.

As I've previously mentioned, God has been narrowing my vision to where He would have me to go. So Sublett Road and I have been praying for some time now about a possible opportunity that I have to work in Papua, Indonesia. Please join me in praying for the following things: The opportunity in Papua. For my church and me, as we seek to follow God's leadership. Wisdom to follow God about plans for the rest of this year The college group at Sublett Road as we continue to grow together and transition me out of my role as college pastor. My tests in April. I'm so grateful for your prayers!

Love in Christ,

Matthew Thompson
